Eastry is a small but extremely picturesque and interesting village in East Kent, two and a half miles from Sandwich. The village lies just off the old Roman Stone Street, and numerous British, Roman, and Saxon remains have been found in the vicinity. Eastry Court, in the neighbourhood, is a 17th century building, which occupies the site of an ancient palace connected with Thomas à Becket, and still further back a palace is supposed to have stood here which was the property of the early Kings of Kent.
